2. Presentation - Building Re-use Committee Final Report – Heather Hurtt – Ms. Hurtt reviewed the final report of the Building Re-use Committee and outlined the recommendations for the six properties reviewed.

Former Public Library

Recommendations:

The City retain long-term ownership.

The City issue a Request for Proposal (RFP) for redevelopment of the property using the ground-lease method of long term control. RFP should illicit public and private re-uses, including partnerships, with an emphasis on solid financial plans. Response time should be 90 days.

Lafayette School

Recommendations:

The City retain long-term ownership.

The City issue a Request for Proposal (RFP) for redevelopment of the property using the ground-lease method of long-term control. RFP should include expectations for retention of the playground and park. Response time should be 60 days.

Rock Street Garage

Recommendations:

The City retain long-term ownership.

The City issue a Request for Proposal (RFP) for redevelopment of the property using the ground-lease method of long-term control. Response time should be 60 days.
Plains School & Creek Athletic Club

Recommendations:

The City require that before the end of the respective leases, current tenants develop and demonstrate a public benefit as part of their mission.

The City assess property and increase the annual rent from $1/year to the annual property tax amount; increase would begin at the beginning of the next lease period.

The City apply all lease revenues to property stewardship and to adjacent park in the case of the Creek Athletic Club. This procedure should be reviewed annually.

South Meeting House

Recommendations:

The City investigate further opportunities associated with partnerships with neighborhood groups. For example, The Friends of the South End who has already developed a conceptual proposal for the property. Other groups that would complement the building’s use in this neighborhood setting should be considered if they appear.
