

Non-School Sponsored Contests for Students

Non-school sponsored contests may be permitted when the Principal and Superintendent judge that the contests fit into the overall instructional objectives of the school and shall have prior approval of the Superintendent.