Dear Chairman Tabor and Committee Members:

As I stated below, Mrs. Cavalaro's Affidavit is being submitted to correct what she believes are inaccurate and misleading statements Counselor Kennedy made in reference to her, as well as, negative inferences that may be drawn therefrom.

Mrs. Cavalaro is employed by the Seacoast Repertory Theatre, a valued and integral part of the Portsmouth Community and Mrs. Cavalaro regards it as her obligation to bring before the Committee the facts set out in her Affidavit.

Please note, I did not copy SeacoastOnline as Attorney McCallum did, as I consider that highly inappropriate given the serious nature of what your Committee is considering.

Very truly yours,

Jay Nadeau

If Ms. Cavalaro and Mr. Nadeau can't attend this evening's meeting, where I can cross-examine her, then as far as I'm concerned the affidavit cannot be considered.

If Mr. Nadeau and Ms. Cavalaro merely want the affidavit to "be made a part of the record," that's fine; but I object to its being admitted into evidence, absent the opportunity for cross-examination.

Duncan MacCallum
