

Synthia Ravell

From: Tom Hart <commissionerhart@gmail.com>
Sent: Tuesday, September 29, 2020 2:19 PM
To: Synthia Ravell
Subject: FW: Pearson's big lie.

Sent from Mail for Windows 10

From: Duncan MacCallum
Sent: Monday, September 21, 2020 9:39 AM
To: rpsullivan@cityofportsmouth.com
Cc: johntaborportsmouth@gmail.com; johnktabor@gmail.com; rgamester@comcast.net; amwicw@comcast.net; commissionerhart@gmail.com; esthersmarina@gmail.com; votenancypearson@gmail.com; edinan@seacoastonline.com
Subject: Fwd: Pearson's big lie.

Dear Bob:

In keeping with my e-mail message of just a few moments ago, I am forwarding you the first of two e-mail messages which serve as exhibits to the letter that was attached to my preceding e-mail.

Duncan MacCallum

-----Original Message-----

From: Mark Brighton <markbrighton1@gmail.com>
To: Duncan McCallum <madbarrister@aol.com>
Sent: Thu, Sep 17, 2020 12:32 am
Subject: Pearson's big lie.

Duncan,

Got an interesting phone call. Person has to be anonymous at the moment. I trust them completely. Says to watch the video of her testimony. There is a mirror in back of her. Someone is standing in front of her as they can be seen in the mirror. When she states who's in the room, she says only Bagley. The person in the mirror can't be Bagley because the figure is still there when Bagley testifies. Bagley mentions Denton has just shown up. This person knows Denton. Shoots him a text asking if he is the figure in the mirror. He answers in the affirmative. Pearson's pants are on fire. Goes to credibility | would think, among other things like sworn testimony.

Mark

Mark